Bunge Names Christos Dimopoulos President of Agribusiness

WHITE PLAINS, NY – October 30, 2018 – Bunge Limited (NYSE: BG) today announced that Christos Dimopoulos has been named President, Agribusiness. Mr. Dimopoulos' appointment follows the previous announcement of Brian Thomsen's retirement and is effective immediately.

"Our global footprint and strength in Agribusiness are at the core of Bunge's business portfolio, and we are pleased to have a seasoned leader with deep industry expertise in operations and risk management in this key role for Bunge," said Soren Schroder, CEO, Bunge Limited. "I look forward to working with Christos as we continue to optimize our global footprint and expand on our capabilities in origination, capacity management and destination marketing to remain the leader in global crush and be the partner of choice for farmers and customers around the world."

Dimopoulos joined Bunge in 2004 and most recently served as senior vice president global grains and oilseeds. Prior to joining Bunge, he held roles of increasing responsibility in Europe and the United States with Tradigrain and Intrade Risk Management. He holds a Bachelor's degree from HEC Lausanne in Business Management & Marketing.
